

AMU Alumni Association Germany e.V. Commemorates Sir Syed Day- 2025 in Frankfurt, Germany

The Aligarh Muslim University (AMU) Alumni Association of Germany celebrated Sir Syed Day in Frankfurt on Saturday, October 18th, 2025, showcasing a spirited and successful event attended by over 160 alumni from different regions of Germany. The event highlighted the strong bonds within the AMU community in the country.

The celebration was honoured by the presence of Hon. Shri Vyas Shukla, Vice Consul General of India in Frankfurt, who served as the Chief Guest. Dr. Ajax Mohamed, President of the AMU Alumni Association Germany, warmly welcomed Mr. Vyas Shukla and the attendees. In his speech, Mr Vyas Shukla outlined the association's initiatives and talked about Sir Syed Ahmed Khan and his contribution.

Imran Ahmad, Vice President of the association, presented the Book „Reason for Smile“ to the Chief Guest. In his address, Mr. Vyas said that he is amazed to see the strength and large presence of our community in Germany.

Ayesha Fatma, General Secretary of the association, who moderated the event, also introduced us to our current Board Members promoting transparency and connection, and their hard work and dedication made this event such a great success.

Zeeshan Alam was truly instrumental in planning this event and his dedication made it all come together seamlessly. We also had AMU Sultans cricket team on Stage. They shared their inspiring experiences, determination and how they made this year such a success by winning so many games.

A segment was conducted by Shajee Ahmed dedicated to Alumni Entrepreneurs, highlighting their inspiring contribution to the German economy and showcasing the impact of the community's talent and innovation. The event featured a lively Numaish(exhibition) area with Kids games and Fun activities creating an engaging family friendly atmosphere. In Numaish ground we also had Paper Circuit Making Session by Bushra and our little participants had a blast.

Adding to the lively ambiance, Mohd Masroor Ali engaged the audience with games and activities, including those for children.

A cultural highlight was the Bait Bazi competition, which was well received. Dr. Yashfeen Khan also organized engaging children's programs, enhancing the inclusiveness of the event.

The program reached its height when the alumni took to the stage to perform the AMU Tarana, engaging the entire audience with their enthusiastic participation.

This heartfelt moment evoked nostalgia for all attendees, bringing back cherished memories of their time at Aligarh Muslim University and further strengthening the emotional ties among the alumni.

The celebration concluded with heartfelt thanks to all Aligarians who travelled from different regions to attend and to all volunteers, making it a truly national gathering.

The Sir Syed Day celebration in Frankfurt exemplifies the commitment of AMU alumni in Germany. It not only honoured the ideals of Sir Syed Ahmad Khan and the pursuit of educational excellence but also served as a vital platform for alumni networking, enhancing the global connections among AMU graduates.
